

Swiss Village Bulk Food, Inc.

Swiss Village Bulk Foods is a family-owned retail bulk food business that was started in 1980 by Mose and Erma Miller from Sugarcreek, Ohio. They started out with approximately 80 feet of shelving space. In July of 2000, their son Dustin and wife Linda Miller bought the store. They have devoted the store to be a place where customers feel welcome. Their store has grown tremendously. Today, there is approximately 3,648 feet of shelving space with an estimated 6,000 products.

Swiss Village Bulk Foods has six different departments. We have the bulk food department, which has dry goods, spices, different kinds of mixes, dried fruits and nuts, and your basic baking supplies. Our health food department has beauty products, organic foods, Natures Sunshine vitamins, gluten-free products, and lots of other miscellaneous items. We also have a Massage Therapist, a Chiropractor, and Health Consulting. In our health department we carry Keen footwear. The kitchenware department has all kinds of unique kitchen gadgets, canning supplies, and also Styrofoam products. We have a selection of around 75 different meats and cheeses in our deli department. In the deli, there is also an area to get a sandwich, a drink, and ice cream to eat while you are shopping or to take with you when you go home. We hope that when you come you enjoy your visit and are completely satisfied with your shopping experience!
